Safe Harbor Statement

Except for the historical matters contained herein, statements in this press release are forward-looking and are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements may be preceded by, followed by or otherwise include the words “may,” “will,” “believes,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “intends,” “plans,” “estimates,” “projects,” “could,” “would,” “should” or similar expressions or statements that certain events or conditions may occur. Actual results, performance or achievements could differ materially from those contemplated, expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are based largely on the expectations, beliefs and assumptions of the Company’s management and on the information currently available to it and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to: risks and uncertainties associated with the Company’s growth strategy, including that the Company may not be successful in achieving organic growth or in identifying or consummating acquisitions or other strategic opportunities when expected or at all, and that the potential benefits of acquisitions (including the recent acquisition of Western State Design) may not be realized to the extent anticipated or at all; and other economic, competitive, governmental, technological and other risks and factors, including, without limitation, those discussed in the “Risk Factors” section of the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2016 or otherwise in the Company’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Many of these risks and factors are beyond the Company’s control. In addition, past performance and perceived trends may not be indicative of future results. The Company cautions that the foregoing factors are not exclusive.
